1. Background

➤ Company History

NuBerry Fruits (PTY) Ltd was established in 2005 and supplies a wide range of fruit preparations, syrups and product specific applications to the dairy and drinks industries. We supply our customers with value added products, which in return supplies the South African market with branded and own label products.

Through our experience and commitment from our employees we will strive to be the best at what we do, and will achieve this by delivering the highest standards of quality and service.

➤ What we do

Nuberry's core business is to supply dairies with value added fruited or smooth yoghurt preparations and colour / flavour compounds.

We use a range of double jacket hot water vessels which allows us to batch manufacture from as little as 100kg up to 5000kg batches.

Our processes and equipment also allows full flexibility and back up during planned maintenance, unforeseen break downs or unforeseen orders uplifts.

We are fully equipped for a-septic filling or hot filling across various weight and packaging configurations to suit individual customer needs and requirements.

Our dedicated and segregated receiving, manufacturing and despatch areas allow for best possible product, process and people flows.

2. Vision & Mission
